WHERE THERE IS FAITH 4:55 ~~PRAISE THE LORD 4:05~~

INTRO: Welcome to Grace Notes. It's been said that...

Doubt sees the obstacles – faith sees the way

Doubt sees the darkest night – faith sees the day

Doubt dreads to take a step – faith soars on high

Doubt questions – ‘Who believes?’ – faith answers ‘I.’

The way to dispel doubt is to have faith. On our program today, we'll continue with one of the lessons Barb & Dale Sandbek learned while building the first Christian radio station in southern Belize - that of the importance of not succumbing to doubt. If you're on the fence between doubt and faith, listen up, this might just be what you need to hear.

So here we were, providentially equipped with everything for the station and no place to build it. At this point, we might have felt like we were all alone if we didn't have God's promise in Hebrews 13:5b...

I will never leave you nor forsake you...

and the verse He had ~~giving~~ gave us before we started

1 Thess. 5:24 He who has called you is faithful.

To be faithful means that you adhere firmly and devotedly to a person, you're loyal, worthy of trust, and consistent with truth.

God is DEVOTED and loyal to us, His children, and will always remain so because HE is not just consistent with truth – He IS truth. His faithfulness is not based on anything WE do, but rather on who He is.

Can you count on Him to see you through the valley to the other side? You bet. Jesus, in His prayer to the Father in John 17, said that He sanctified, or set Himself apart, for US - now that's devotion!

When we doubt we are really saying we don't trust Him.

What's the difference between being faithful and having faith? Faith is having a confident belief in the truth or trustworthiness of a person. It's belief that doesn't rest on logical proof or material evidence. Here again, we're not to have faith in what we do or even in ourselves, but in the ONE who has directed us to do it, God.

We do, however, participate in this faith process. 1 Corinthians 4:2 challenges us with this command..

...it is required that those who have been given a trust must prove faithful.

How can we prove ourselves faithful and do the right thing?

James 1:5-7 says...

If any of you lack wisdom, he should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him. But when he asks he MUST believe and not doubt, because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. That man should not think he will receive anything from the Lord.

Believing is our duty, but it is also our choice. We must put our FAITH in the FAITHFUL ONE and ask for the wisdom and faith to be faithful to Him.

After all, God does His best work when we don't have a clue.

 GOD LIKES TO WORK ***

God had already given us faith legs to stand on, we just had to continue our search for a location for the station. We were weary and about ready to call it a day when we drove past a building that was being refurbished. The friends who were showing us around had no idea who they were, but we decided to check it out anyway. Dale went inside and stayed there for quite a while. He came out smiling. They were a ministry team from the US, who were there to fix up the building for Rev. Ernie, who was the director and pastor of an established work farther north. He was in the process of buying the property to expand the work right then.

As Dale shared the vision, ~~with him,~~ tears filled ~~his~~Rev. Ernie's eyes. He said that he had received a vision from the Lord ten years before to start a radio station in that area. After consulting his church and praying, they agreed to give us a portion of their land and an unfinished building to do with what we wanted. They really wanted the station on their property and agreed to help.

The Lord had answered our prayer and that of our faithful prayer partners.

About that same time, God confirmed that this was the right place, by having one of our friends email us a special verse, I'VE NEVER BEEN OUT OF HIS CARE 3:18

BELIZE MUSIC

Welcome to Grace Notes. It's been said that God is the only One who can work good out of bad. Those of us who choose to believe this, find it to be true. Also true, is that when we decide to follow Christ and serve Him, we will encounter adversity, because we live in a world that caters to sin and rejects holy living. Even Jesus, when he was ministering on earth, was constantly under attack. But with all the disruptions, He still accomplished His task to provide eternal salvation for all who believe—and that's not only good—that's GREAT. God will provide what we need to be ambassadors for Christ. On our broadcast today, our host, Barbara Sandbek, will show us how God worked good out of some tough situations that arose when she and her husband, Dale, first arrived in southern Belize, where they planned to build the first Christian radio station. But first, let's listen to a song that gives good advice for handling any struggle we come up against.

 PRAISE THE LORD ***

Yes, that's good advice. Put on the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. A lady I know said she played that song for her six year old son and he memorized all the words. His favorite line was... "Now Satan...he's a liar!". That's so true. In fact he's the father of lies. I figured if this little boy can remember this throughout his life, he'll never succumb to satan's attacks. 1 Peter 5:8 says that the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour, but verse 9

~~says that we can resist him by standing firm in the faith.~~

~~In the story of Nehemiah, we find that Nehemiah met with adversity almost immediately after he made his plans known. Two governors of the surrounding regions were very much disturbed that someone had come to promote the welfare of the Israelites and they spent a great deal of time trying to thwart his efforts. But this didn't stop him from plowing forward—he had a job to do and he knew God was with him. I love how 1 Corinthians 1:25 puts it...~~

~~—The foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength.~~

~~Adversity takes many forms. We choose whether we will become discouraged or not. Even before we left some situations arose, one of a serious nature, that could have caused us to back out, but we kept focused on our calling and prayed. The more we trusted God, the more assured we were that He wanted us to do this project.~~

~~We arrived in Belize and were immediately elated when the customs agent had us open every suitcase but the one that contained all the vitamins we had bought to keep us well. We hadn't intended to sell them, but they could have charged us a great deal of money in duty fees because we had no proof.~~

~~Our missionary friends were to meet us at the airport and we were going to drive around the city that day and the next to find a car. We stood on the sidewalk for about an hour and a half and finally realized they weren't coming. It was good that we'd been there before, otherwise, we may have been fearful. The taxis were coming sparsely so we realized we needed to hail one down quickly. We started walking toward the one that came. Then another taxi pulled up behind him and they started arguing. Finally, the second driver told us to come with him and the first man gave him no fight. After we were inside, the driver told us that the first man was not a licensed taxi and if he came near a checkpoint along the road (and there were many) he would dump us off, baggage and all, on the side of the road. I asked him what his name was and he said, 'Emmanuel'. That means 'God with us'. I thought, "Man this is gonna be good!"~~

~~We settled in at the hotel and called our friends. They had thought they were to be there the next day. What a way to start—up then down. But, once again, we chose to see what was allowed, as from God.~~

~~The next day our friends came up and we began the search for the 4 x 4 diesel car we thought we needed. Most of the cars had something major wrong with them or were too expensive. We had our prayer warriors praying specifically for this day because it was imperative that we get a car in the city. There were none where we were planning to live. Our friend's car's alternator went up and in the middle of everything we had to find parts. Nothing is simple in Belize. We had to spend an additional night in the motel but the next day we found our car—a 1989 Fifth Avenue we named Bessie. It wasn't even on the car lot because the dealer figured no one wanted it—it was an 8 cylinder and gas was over $4.00 a gallon. The great thing about the car was that everything worked—even the power windows. The dealer's helpers often used it to take on dates—they all loved it and kept it in shape. With the price being much lower than we'd planned, we figured we could afford the gas. The extra day spent there allowed us to get a wire transfer along with the insurance and the tags. We wouldn't need to make the expensive and time-consuming trip back. Now, isn't God is the perfect orchestrator.~~

~~We had started our journey by seeing the Lord's hand and realizing how He had already planned for this up-and-down day so we could learn to count on His faithfulness and appreciate His blessings. This was just the beginning of more to come.~~

~~There would have been reasons to be concerned and reasons to fear, if we didn't have God to guide us. So I say to you,~~

~~*If the light of your life seems to flicker and falter
Especially when difficult times appear
If the weight of your load's like the Rock of Gibraltar
And you cannot have joy for you only have fear
Then turn your cares over to God, your creator
He made you, He knows you. He'll carry your load.
Trust Him and see how He makes all things happen
For good as your travel down life's windy road.*~~

Isaiah 43:18.

Here God says...

...I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up, do you not see it?

I am making a way in the desert; and streams in the wasteland.

The amazing thing about this verse is that it was indeed a new thing - there was no Christian radio in southern Belize. God's Word would go forth, sending living water into the desert. The ministry we worked with was called 'River of Life' (that's the streams), and the building site was located in the town called 'Dump' (that's the wasteland).

We found out later why the original site would not have worked out.
It was in an area where robbery was prevalent. ~~There were problems with the organization who operated it.~~ The room was much smaller than we needed. It would have been too noisy with campers overhead and too hot. There was limited access to a bathroom and it would have been more costly to renovate than to build a new building.

When you wait on God and trust Him, He always gives you the best.

We realized that the money we had collected would not be needed for equipment or rent, but rather for a new building, tailor made. This experience strengthened our faith in the ONE who continued to prove Himself faithful.

16-4

 NO GREATER LOVE **

Before I knew your Name—You knew my every breath
Before I found my way—You knew my every step
Before I knew everything that I need—You gave it all to me

Chorus

No greater love than this—that You should lay down your life
For someone such as this—
I'd spend a lifetime wondering why
The beauty of Heaven is here in my heart
And I know there can be—no greater love—than this

I never understood—how merciful love could be
Until I felt his flame—light every part of me
And I would give everything that I am
'Cause I have been saved—yes I have been saved

<Chorus>

<6 beat interlude>—OH LOVE—OH LOVE OOO
The beauty of heaven is here in my heart
And I know there can be—no greater love
For someone such as me
No greater love—than this

How do we say 'thank you' to so GREAT A LOVE?

2 Cor. 5:14-15 Paul writes... Christ's love compels us because we are convinced that one died for all and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for Him who died for them and was raised again.

Saw your CROWN of thorns—how You gladly wore it

————— EVERY Cross I bear—I'm stronger for it

————— Lord when the way is hard You show me how ————— TO follow your footsteps & cast away all doubt

————— Saw Your TEMPTATION—how you STOOD before it

————— & I'm tempted too,—but I'm stronger for it
